Revenge Spells

Although everyone makes mistakes in life, some people in this world feel that any person who intentionally or unintentionally hurt someone should be made to suffer the consequences of their wrongdoing. Peaceful people everywhere has learnt to deal with disappointing calamities in life by forgiving the person whom (they think) was responsible for it and moving on with their lives.

Unfortunately, there are many people who take themselves too seriously and do not understand the simple fact that the Universe can take care of itself. What each individual contributes into the world is returned to them three-fold. This is the law of Karma. What we do unto others boomerangs back to US.

Most of us know that if someone does us harm, they will suffer the consequences in this life or in the next. The Universe does not require our help to correct what we think are its "mistakes". The Universe does exactly what was pre-planned for each individual to erase their karmic debts and take them through lessons they are here to experience.

Revenge spells are used on the occasions that people feel they have to personally give someone a lesson. Little do they know that by interfering with the laws of nature, we are adding to our own karmic debt.

We are all here in this world to learn our karmic lessons. There are some souls who incarnate to become teachers and guides. These souls are more in touch with the Cosmic reality and will not be easily perturbed. They always welcome others and enlighten them with spiritual knowledge. They are called Gurus. Examples of Gurus are The Dalai Llama, and some of the Swamis of India. A guru always tries to unite. People who try to divide our world in the name of religion are not aware or awake to the Cosmic reality. People who accept all religions KNOW that we are all ONE and the SAME.

Our goal is to “live and let live”. We must always remember that most of the people who come in contact are souls who have agreed to help us experience some pre-planned event. For example, if we go out to the grocery store and we see a poor man begging for coins. We ignore him and continue to walk, telling ourselves that he is a lazy bum. After a while, guilt gnaws on our conscience and we reconsider our behavior thinking, “I should’ve given him something; what if I became homeless?”.

That is the realization that our souls are merely enacting a drama that we came into this world for.

When a person inadvertently hurts you, you have to think of the lesson that you have learned. Was it compassion, humility or ignorance? Or maybe it was the recognition of your own lack of compassion at that point. Whatever that was, the sooner you recognize it and act like the PURE LOVE that we are supposed to BE, the faster your karmic debt will be reduced to nothing!

We have to remember is that we have agreed to come into this world with complete amnesia regarding the experiences of our previous lives. So our best bet is to always “err” on the side of compassion and love regardless of what anyone else does.

When there is a request for revenge or revenge spells, gently guide the person from anger into compassion and healing. The greatest need for a person who hurts another intentionally is kindness. All great souls who came into this world emphasized that one teaching – compassion!

As we can see from the current state of the planet we call Earth, revenge has only led to more deaths and sorrow. As someone said, allow mothers of the two warring countries to sit and talk in a room and soon you will find 101 reasons to end the war! That is because we can see another’s child as our own. Even animals raise the young of other animals, even ones that are their natural enemies! That is a miracle of compassion!

Let us replace revenge spells with healing and health spells, prosperity spells, joy and happiness spells and above all, LOVE spells!

Here is a spell we can all chant anytime!

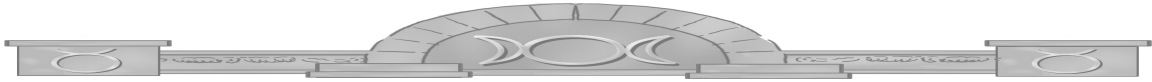

OHM Lokaha Samastaha Sukhino Bhavanthu

OHM Lokaha Samastaha Sukhino Bhavanthu

OHM Lokaha Samastaha Sukhino Bhavanthu

OHM SHANTI, SHANTI, SHANTHIHI!

Meaning – Let all the BEINGS in all the WORLDS be HAPPY! Let peace reign!

(The word OHM invokes the Cosmic energy.)

Blessed Be!
